

Commodity Investing by Students at Virginia Tech

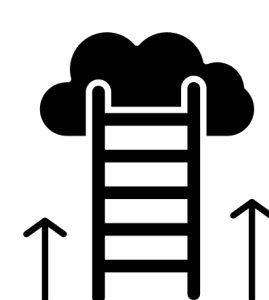

The country's only
student managed
agricultural,
energy, and metals
commodities
investment portfolio
over $1 million.

We educate members on these markets through hands-on trading experiences and prepare members for a prosperous career.

Our mission is to provide members with an unrivaled experience through targeted training and mentorship.

Grow as a professional through experts and an ever-expanding alumni and industry network.